Dear Mary,

11/21/72

I no sooner mail you something, certain there will be nothing to add, than there [illegible]. Spoke to Cesar briefly yesterday. He says he saw a small piece in the NYTimes saying that Marina had appealed to 5th circuit over LHO's property and in doing so had alleged that LHO was not the assassin. That's more than a switch, depending on who her lawyers are. And if she/they are tricky. Not assassin, no value in property, so why sue for it? To sell to those who believe after contrary courtroom certification? Must have some kind of deal set. Anyway, if it is a local suit there and it is not too much trouble to see the papers, Jim and I would like to. If the lawyers are known, it might be good to know what they are. best, mw
